Appalachian folk song

As we marched down to Fen-na-ri-o,

As we marched down to Fen-na-ri-o,

Our cap-tain fell in love

with a la-dy like a dove.

They call her by name pret-ty Peg-gy-o.

What will your mother think pretty Peggy-o?

What will your mother think pretty Peggy-o?

What will your mother think

when she hears the guineas clink,

The soldiers all marchin' before you-o?

In a carriage you will ride, pretty Peggy-o.

In a carriage you will ride, pretty Peggy-o.

In a carriage you will ride
with your true love by your side,
As fair as any maiden in the are-o.
Come skippin' down the stair, pretty Peggy-o.
Come skippin' down the stair, pretty Peggy-o.
Come skippin' down the stair
combin' back your yellow hair,
And bid farewell to sweet William-o.
Sweet William is dead, pretty Peggy-o.
Sweet William is dead, pretty Peggy-o.
Sweet William is dead, and he died for a maid,
The fairest maid in the are-o.
If ever I return, pretty Peggy-o.
If ever I return, pretty Peggy-o.
If ever I return all your cities I will burn,
Destroying all the ladies in the are-o.
Destroying all the ladies in the are-o.
