

Tin whistle tabs for: Hole in my shoe

Categories: Rock

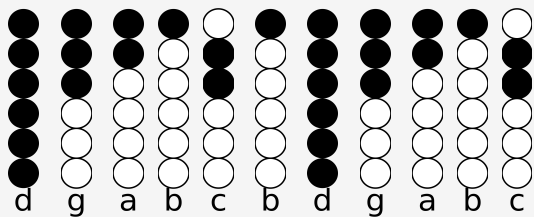

Author/Performer: Traffic

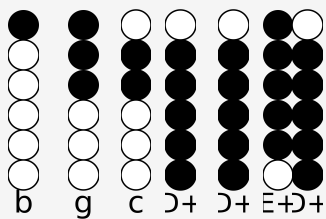

i look in the sky where an elephants eye was looking at me from a bubblegum tree and all that i knew was the hole in my shoe which was letting in water

i walked through a field that just wasn't real where 100 tin soldiers would shoot at my shoulder

and all that i knew was

the hole in my shoe

i started to fall and suddenly woke and the dew on the grass it stuck to my coat
