 After leavin the third I came out by the yard, where I walked into Brophy the civic guard; "come ere to me boy don't you know I'm the law?" I upped with me fist and I shattered his jaw Well he fell to the ground with his knees doubled up 'twas not I that hit him, but Johnny Jump-Up, the next thing that I met down by Youghal by the sea was a cripple on crutches and he said to me
 "I'm afraid for me life I'll be hit by a car, won't you help me across to the railwayman's bar?" but after drinkin' a quart of the cider so sweet, he threw down his crutches and danced in the street.
 Chorus
 Well I went down the Lee road a friend for to see, they call it the Madhouse in Cork by the sea, but when I got there sure the truth I will tell, they had a poor bugger locked up in a cell, said the guard, testing him, "say these word if you can: "Around the rugged rock the ragged rascal ran." "Tell them I'm not crazy, tell them I'm not mad 'twas only the sup of the bottle I had.

Chorus

A man died in the Union by the name of McNabb, they washed him, they laid him outside on a slab, and after O'Conner his measurements did take, his wife took him home for a bloody fine wake

Well, about twelve o'clock and the beer it was high, the corpse he sits up and says he with a sigh, "I can't get to heaven, they won't let me up 'till I bring them a quart of Johnny Jump-Up
