See the bright boat sails a-way

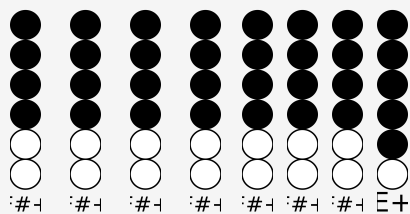

now out from the shore

Out from the shore see the bright boat sails a-way now

Out from Idhra the ti-ny is-land and its sail-ing out for spon-ges

A long the shore a long the shore

In the boat are fine young divers out from the shore

Out from the shore in the boat are fine young divers

Who will dive to hunt for sponges, deep among the pearls and coral

Out from the shore out from the shore

Health and joy to you young divers

Out from the shore out from the shore

Health and joy to you young divers

So youll bring us home some sponges

And a bright pink piece of coral

Back to the shore back to the shore
