The late George Wool-nough worked on High street and lived on manners

Fifty two years he sat on his verandah and made his saddles. And if you had questions `bout sheep or flowers or dogs you`d just ask the saddler

He lived without sin theyre building a li-bry for him

CHORUS

Time is a traveler Tenterfield Saddler turn your head. Ride again jackaroo think I see kangaroo up ahead

The son of George Woolnough went off and got married and had a war baby an int` resting face

He`d almost forgotten them both because in the life that he leads, there`s nowhere for George and his libr`y or the son with his gun to belong except in this song
