Categories: Kids

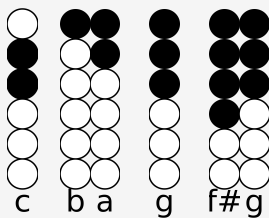

To do unto others

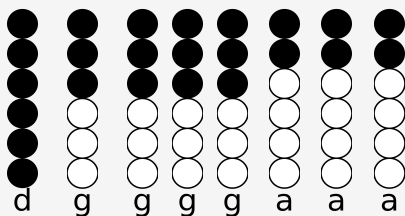

As I would that they should do to me,

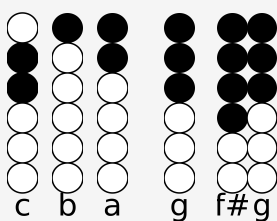

Will make me honest, kind and good,

As children ought to be.

Will make me honest, kind and good,

As children ought to be.

We never should behave amiss
Nor need be doubtful long,
As we may always tell by this,
If things are right or wrong.
As we may always tell by this,
If things are right or wrong.
