

Tin whistle tabs for: Feels Like Tonight

Author/Performer: Daughtry

You, you got me

Thinking it'll be alright.

You, you told me,

"Come and take a look inside--."

You believed me,

And every single lie-

But I, I failed you this time.

And it feels like tonight.

I can't believe I'm broken inside.

Can't you see that there's nothing that I wanna do,

For the day you'd come around.

I was chasing,

But nothing was all I found.

From the moment

you came into my life,

You showed me what's right.

And it feels like tonight.

I never felt like this before.

Just when I leave, I'm back for more.

Nothing else here seems to matter-----.

And in these ever-changing days,

You're the one thing that remains.

I could stay like this forever--.

And it feels like tonight.

I can't believe I'm broken inside.

Can't you see that there's nothing that I wanna do,

But try to make it up to you?

And it feels like tonight,

Tonight.

'Cause there's nothing that I wanna do,

But try to make it up to you.

And it feels like tonight.

Tonight.
