

Tin whistle tabs for: Home On The Range

Genre: country

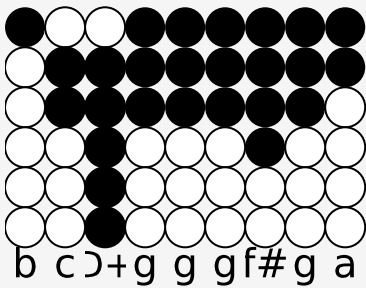

Author/Performer: Daniel E. Kelley

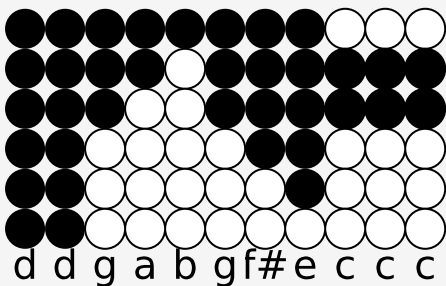

Oh, give me a home

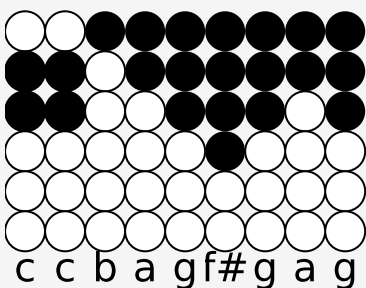

where the buf-fa-lo roam,

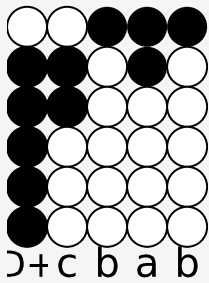

Where the deer and the an-te-lope play

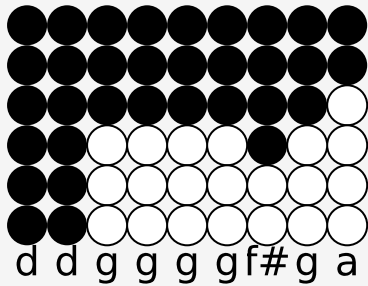

Where sel-dom is heard a dis-cour-a-ging word,

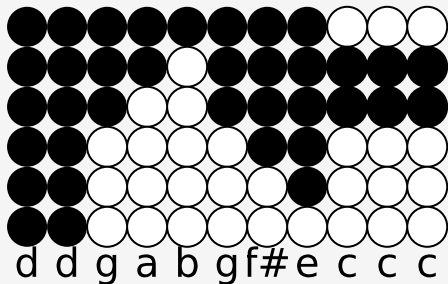

And the skies are not cloud-y all day.

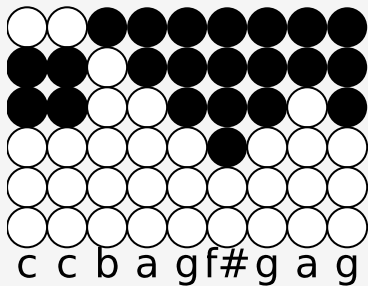

Home, home on the range,

Where the deer and the an-te-lope play.

Where sel-dom is heard a dis-cour-a-ging word,

And the skies are not cloud-y all day.

Where the air is so pure,
the zephyrs so free,
And the breezes
so balmy and light.
Then I would not exchange
my home on the range
For all of your cities so bright.
The red man was pressed
from this part of the West, And he's likely
no more to return To the banks of Red River, where seldom, if ever
Their flickering campfires burn.

How often at night
when the heavens
are bright,
With the light
from the glittering stars, Here I stood there amazed,
and asked as I gazed,
If their glory exceeds that of ours.

I love the wild flowers
in this dear land of ours,
And the curlew
I love to hear scream.
I love the wild rocks
and the antelope flocks, That graze on
the mountaintops green.

Oh give me a land where the bright
diamond sand,
Flows leisurely
down the stream.
Where the graceful
white swan
goes sliding along,
Like a maid
in a heavenly dream.
