Genre: folk

Author/Performer: Leonard Cohen, Judy Collins

Oh, the sis-ters of mer-cy

They are not de-part-ed or gone

They were wait-ing for me

When I thought that I just can't go on

And they brought me their com-fort

And lat-er they brought me their song

Oh, I hope you run in-to them

You, who've been trav-ling so long

Yes, you who must leave ev-ry-thing

That you can-not con-trol

It be-gins with your fam-ly

And soon it comes round to your soul

I've been where you're hang-ing

I think, I can see how you're pinned

When you're not feel-ing hol-y

Your lone-li-ness says, that you've sinned

Well, they lay down beside me

I made my confessions to them

They touched both my eyes

And I touched the dew on their hem

If your life is a leaf

That the seasons tear off and condemn

They will bind you with love

That is graceful and green as a stem

When I left they were sleeping

And I hope you run into them soon

Don't turn on the lights

You can read their address by the moon

And you won't make me jealous

If I find that they've sweetened your night

We weren't lovers like that

And besides it would still be all right

We weren't lovers like that

And besides it would still be all right
