Verse:

In the battle-front we stood
When their fiercest charge they made
And they swept us off
A hundred men or more.
But before we'd reached their lines
They were beaten back dismayed
And we heard the cry of
"Vict'ry!" o'er and o'er.

Verse

Now within the prison cell
We are waiting for the day
That will come to open
Wide the iron door.
And the hollow eye grows bright
And the poor heart almost gay
When we think of seeing home
And friends once more.
